

Privacy Notice

Your Privacy is important to us.

What information do we collect and how?

We collect information when visitors register their details to enquire about our properties.

We store this information and use it with your consent to send you emails about our properties.

This information is not shared with any other organisations for marketing, market research or commercial purposes, and we don't pass on your details to other websites.

We also, like many other websites, use small files called Cookies, which are stored by the browser on your computer or mobile device. Users can opt out of the use of cookies at any time by switching these off through your browser. They allow websites to capture information such as user preferences and basic personal information which can be held for as long as necessary. We use this information to make sure our website works as efficiently possible, to enhance our user experience and for remarketing.

'Opt-in' Emails:

Visitors may 'opt-in' to receive site notifications, newsletters or other information via email. Visitors may remove themselves from such services at any time at their discretion. Any email sent to an 'opt-in' list will include directions for how an individual may remove him or herself from the list or an internet address where the user may find such directions.

We may use personal information to contact users on an individual basis.

Direct Marketing:

Subject to the above, we may as part of our business marketing activity, send information relevant to individuals on our database. At any time individuals may request not to receive such information in the future by contacting porthpeanlet@gmail.com

Keeping your data secure:

Sending information over the internet is generally not completely secure, and we cannot guarantee the security of your data while it is in transit – Any data you send is at your own risk. We have procedures in place to keep your data secure once we receive it.

Your rights

You can find out what information we hold about you, and ask us not to use any of the information we collect. If you've signed up for email alerts, you can unsubscribe at any time by emailing porthpeanlet@gmail.com
